

FACT SHEET

Program Title: THE ONEIDA SPEAK
Program Length: 56:46
Release/Feed Date: NETA
Sunday, February 17, 2008

NOLA Code: ONSK 00K1
Closed Captioned: Yes
Stereo: Yes
DVI: No
Format: Standard NTSC 4x3
Suggested TV Ratings: TV-G

Description: In 1935, while the country was deep in the depression, a group of Oneidas in Wisconsin took advantage of a federal writing program designed to employ Americans and offer economic relief. Many, who wrote in their own language, recorded their daily life on the farm to a federal infiltrator sent to drive people off the land to a devastating small pox epidemic.

Rights Terms: Unlimited Use for 2 Years beginning 2/17/07
Producer: Michelle Danforth (Oneida) & Wisconsin Public Television
Date Produced: 2006
Website: www.nativetelecom.org
Viewer and Station Contact: Shirley Sneve, NAPT
1800 N. 33rd St.
Lincoln, NE 68503
402-472-0496
402-472-8675 fax
E-mail: ssneve2@unl.edu

Ordering Information:

DVDs available in conjunction with broadcast release
from VisionMaker Video www.visionmaker.org or 877-868-2250.

Price $24.95 for home video and $225.00 for educational use with public performance rights.